

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where is the conference located this year?

The conference will be located at the South San Francisco Conference Center, and their address is 255 S. Airport Boulevard, South San Francisco, CA 94080.

What is the fee for this year's conference?

Our conference is free this year! We are grateful for the generosity of our dedicated sponsors who have helped us to ensure the accessibility of our conference and have supported us in offering it free of charge.

What options are available for transportation to the conference center?

The South San Francisco Conference Center offers a free shuttle service from various South San Francisco Public Transportation Station locations. More information can be found here.

What is the cost to park at the conference center?

Parking is free of charge.

Will there be a livestream available?

We won't have the ability to livestream the conference this year, but we do plan (barring any technical issues) to record all the plenary sessions and share them on our website after the event.

What is your policy regarding masks and COVID-19?

While masking is not required, we do encourage attendees, staff, and volunteers to wear masks and we will make them available at locations throughout the conference.

Will you be offering CEUs this year?

We are able to offer 3 CEUs for Registered Nurses this year through the generosity of the Bay Area Black Nurses Association (BRN#CEP9053).
